

Terri Janke invites you to attend a unique event...

Workshop - LOOKING OUT FOR CULTURE:

an Introduction to Indigenous Arts, Copyright, Trade marks & Designs

When: Tuesday 15th March 2005, one day event

Where: Sydney

Venue: To be advised

With Who: Terri Janke in small groups

Cost: $495 includes GST, course materials of 100+ pages, certificate and light lunch

The One Day Program includes:

9:45am Welcome settle-in, meet your peers

10:00am Start of Workshop

Indigenous Arts and Culture What is Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property? What rights do Indigenous artists want to their art and culture? Intellectual property and protecting Indigenous arts: the shortfalls and potential uses.

11:15am Morning Tea

Copyright © What it protects? Duration of protection. What are the particular concerns of Indigenous artists in relation to copyright protection? Who owns copyright? What are moral rights? Indigenous communal moral rights. Case Studies.

Managing rights using agreements. What are the benefits of a written contract? Case studies of arts licence agreement. Essential terms and conditions. Negotiating rights.

1:00pm Break for lunch - light lunch provided

Trade marks ® Where do you apply for a trade mark? What is the registration process? How much does it cost? Where to go for help?

What is the difference between a registered trade mark and an unregistered trade mark? Case study on Indigenous use of trade marks. Certification marks. Case studies.

Designs What is a registered design? What are the benefits of protection? What is the process of registering? Case studies.

3:15pm Afternoon Tea

Developing protocols Overview of protocols for working with Indigenous arts and culture. What issues should be covered by protocols?

4:00pm Close

About your Presenter – Terri Janke (BA.LLB.)

Ms Terri Janke is a successful Indigenous solicitor, author and businesswoman. Her Sydney based law firm, Terri Janke and Company Pty Ltd is the only private, entirely independent Indigenous law firm owned by a woman in Australia. Terri's firm has a charter to advance the protection of Indigenous people in respect of intellectual and cultural property matters. Terri is the author of: - "Our Culture: Our Future: A Report on Australian Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property Rights" and in 2004 'Minding Culture' for the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) plus the Australia Council's 'Indigenous cultural protocols guides'. Terri is a popular public speaker. Her method is entertaining, engaging and educational. She empowers her guests with knowledge and enthusiasm. She is a leading expert in her field.

Event Coordinator: Ms Sonia Cooper Ph 02 9693 2577 Fx 02 9693 2566 Email: sonia@terrijanke.com.au

www.terrijanke.com.au

Workshop - LOOKING OUT FOR CULTURE:

an Introduction to Indigenous Arts, Copyright, Trade marks & Designs

Indigenous cultural and intellectual property specialist, Ms Terri Janke, is presenting a one-day workshop on Tuesday 15th March 2005.

What you get: one full day with a lawyer, light lunch, morning/afternoon tea, Certificate of Completion, networking opportunities, course materials (100+ pages in a folder).

You should attend if you are; in the arts industry, government, private business, or if you are an artist, writer, creator, arts administrator, lawyer, student, or if you are interested in Indigenous arts & culture, or you are interested in Indigenous business or working with/for Indigenous people.

Venue: To be advised

Registration and prior payment is essential to attend the event. Places will be limited.

Registration Form:

Please complete and post to: Terri Janke & Company Pty Ltd PO Box 780 ROSEBERY NSW 1445

Yes, I would like to attend the “Looking Out For Culture” Workshop on Tuesday 15th March 2005.

Name:.....Organisation:

Address:

Email:Phone/Mobile.....

Please find attached payment of $495 (Cheque, money order or bank cheque) made out to Terri Janke and Company Pty Ltd ABN27098848723

Please post to: Terri Janke and Company Pty Ltd PO Box 780 ROSEBERY NSW 1445

Note: Tax Invoices provided for all payments and purchase orders.

Contact Event Coordinator: Ms Sonia Cooper ph 02 9693 2577 Fx 02 9693 2566 or email sonia@terrijanke.com.au for any enquiries

See you here! Terri Janke

www.terrijanke.com.au