

From the Chancellor

Annual reporting is a very exacting task – and a satisfying one when it generates a document of record such as this one.

The activities and outcomes reviewed in the following pages show steady progress towards the objectives and priorities set down in our Strategic Plan. We can be proud of what we have achieved in 2001 and of our prospects for continuing success.

It has been a privilege to lead the University Senate through this final year of my third three-year term as Chancellor, and I look forward to a fourth term as decreed by Senate elections for 2002. The collective expertise and efforts of our Vice-Chancellor, his Executive, our Senators and staff have generated some very positive outcomes and I sincerely thank all these people for their contributions during the year.

Sir Llewellyn Edwards AC
CHANCELLOR
