This is the second Special Issue to be published by Crossroads. The twelve articles presented here were generated by the Rhizomes IV Conference held at the University of Queensland from 14th - 15th February 2008 on the theme of Power, Violence and Language.

We are indebted to Matthew Martinez, a co-chair of the conference and former member of the Crossroads Editorial Board, for his work as the Guest Editor for this issue. It takes a great deal of time, effort and dedication to put such a publication together from consulting with the authors to proof reading and formatting final versions. We are sure that readers will enjoy the diversity and scholarship found in this Special Issue.
