

A FREE SYMPOSIUM
presented by The Wesley Research Institute

The WESLEY
RESEARCH INSTITUTE
Adding to the quality of patients' lives

PATIENT CARE IN CHRONIC ILLNESS
SOCIAL & PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS

For Specialists, General Practitioners, Nurses and Health Care Workers

WEDNESDAY APRIL 13, 2005 - 6:30pm

- 6:30 -6:35pm Welcome by Professor Julie Campbell, Director,
Wesley Research Institute
Introduction by Chair – Professor David Kavanagh,
University of Queensland
- 6:35 - 6:55pm Wellbeing of older carers
Professor Christina Lee
School of Psychology, University of Queensland
- 6:55pm- 7:15pm Quality of Life following a Diagnosis of Colorectal Cancer
Ms Brigid Lynch
Project Manager, Colorectal Cancer and Quality of Life Study, Viertel
Centre for Research in Cancer Control, Queensland Cancer Fund &
School of Population Health, University of Queensland
- 7:15 - 7:25pm Discussion
- 7:25 - 7:50pm Coffee and Cake
- 7:50 – 8:10pm Causative and preventative factors for social isolation among older people – A cross-government project
Professor Helen Bartlett
Director, Australasian Centre on Ageing, University of Queensland
- 8:10 - 8:30pm Concepts of recovery and empowerment in chronic disorder
Dr Lindsay Oades
Department of Psychology, University of Wollongong, NSW
- 8:30 – 8:40pm Discussion
- Venue: Evan & Mary Thomson Auditorium, The Wesley Hospital
451 Coronation Drive, Auchenflower

There is no charge to attend - but RSVP essential

All interested persons are welcome – rsvp by April 8, 2005 either phone Sarah on 3232 7264
or email research@wesley.com.au