

The MBRS Scholarship in partnership with Sibelco Australia
Recipient Terms and Conditions

This document sets out the terms and conditions which apply to The MBRS Scholarship in partnership with Sibelco Australia ("Scholarship").

Obligations of scholarship recipients:

Successful applicants must:

- Utilise the scholarship within 12 months of its offer.
- Be an Honours or RHD student at The University of Queensland when applying for and using the scholarship. Notification in writing to the Research Facilities Manager is required if the student plans to defer, transfer, or withdraw from the program.
- A budget of spending must be presented, showing a minimum of 75% of scholarship being spent at MBRS on accommodation and other MBRS provided services. The remaining 25% may be used towards purchasing equipment that directly supports the approved project.
- Present their work at one of the MBRS free public research seminars before the completion of the scholarship period and to the staff of Sibelco Australia.
- Provide MBRS with a short (<500 word) written synopsis of their work upon completion of the scholarship period. This summary may be published in the local newspaper "Stradbroke Island News", in the Island Research Newsletter, in the "Sand Times" (Sibelco's quarterly community newsletter) and on the MBRS website.
- Provide a Final Report on the form provided to the Research Station within 3 months of completion of the scholarship period.
- Acknowledge MBRS, Sibelco and the Scholarship in any publications, theses, media coverage or reports that may arise from this work.
- Supply to MBRS electronic copies of any publications, thesis or reports that may arise from this work for its library.
- Agree to abide by UQ MBRS Terms and Conditions and the broader policies and procedures of The University of Queensland.
- Have their school finance raise an internal request for $2,500 to be sent to the Faculty of Science OED Finance.

Successful applicants can expect:

1. A transfer of $2500 into a UQ approved internal account. A minimum of $1875 of the total amount is expected to be used to pay for access to MBRS accommodation, facilities, equipment, boats, vehicle hire and other services provided by MBRS. The remaining $625 can be used towards equipment that directly supports the project.
2. Three multipasses for the Stradbroke Flyer and three return trips on the Stradbroke Ferries barge.

These schemes do not provide:

1. Catering (successful applicants must buy and prepare their own food or pay for catering)
2. Laundry services (applicants will be responsible for their own cleaning and laundry)
3. Transportation to and from the Station, other than as outlined above.

Acceptance of Terms and Conditions:

Successful applicants must accept the above terms and conditions to receive the Scholarship. To acknowledge acceptance of these terms and conditions, please sign and date as indicated below and return to l.hurrey@uq.edu.au.
