

Fee Rules 2018

Note: The University places the onus on students to assess accurately their liability for fees when they enrol or change their enrolment. Payment of the correct fees and charges is a prerequisite to the acceptance of an enrolment or change of enrolment by the university.

1A Name of Rules

These rules are the Fee Rules 2018.

1B Commencement

These rules commence on 1 January 2018

1 Definitions

In these rules—

academic registrar means the university's academic registrar.

agreed starting day means the day on which the student's program was scheduled to start or a later day agreed between the university and the student.

census date means, in relation to—

- (a) first semester — 31 March;
- (b) second semester — 31 August;
- (c) summer semester — the date determined by the academic registrar and notified on the university website;
- (d) a trimester — the date determined by the academic registrar and notified on the university website;
- (e) a research quarter — the first day of the second month of the research quarter;
- (f) another teaching period approved by the academic registrar—the date determined by the academic registrar.

Commonwealth supported student means a domestic student for whom the Commonwealth makes a contribution towards the cost of the student's education.

cross-institutional student has the meaning given by the General Award Rules.

domestic student means a student who is—

- (a) an Australian citizen; or
- (b) a New Zealand citizen; or
- (c) the holder of a permanent visa for Australia.

enrolment period means a semester, research quarter, or trimester.

exempt student means a domestic student who, under HESA [HESA subsection 169-20(3) and Administration Guidelines paragraph 5.10.1], does not have to pay the student contribution amount or tuition fee.

external student means a student enrolled only in programs or courses classified by the university as external.

fee means any fee or charge payable under these rules, including the student contribution amount and tuition fee.

FEE-HELP means the Commonwealth loan scheme to help eligible students, not being Commonwealth supported students, pay their tuition fee.

first study period of enrolment means the study period the student commenced or was to commence the program at the university.

full-time student means a student who—

- (a) is not an external student; and
- (b) in a semester—

- (i) is enrolled as a full-time student in a postgraduate research program; or
- (ii) is enrolled in 6 units or more.

HECS-HELP means the Commonwealth loan scheme to help eligible Commonwealth supported students pay their student contribution amount.

HESA means the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (Cth).

non-award student means a student who is enrolled in one or more courses at the university on the basis that the student will not be granted an award for the completion of the courses.

overseas student means a student who is not a domestic student.

part-time student means a student who is not an external student or a full-time student.

PhD means a Doctor of Philosophy.

professional doctorate means an AQF level 9 professional doctorate program.

professional doctorate (research) means an AQF level 10 professional doctorate program, where at least two thirds of the program is research.

remote means a program of study undertaken by a research higher degree student at a location that is not within a daily commuting distance of a University of Queensland campus.

Research Higher Degree (RHD) means a PhD or MPhil or professional doctorate (research) program research quarter means a teaching period of three months duration commencing in January, April, July and October of each calendar year.

SA-HELP means the Commonwealth loan scheme to help eligible students pay their student services and amenities fee.

scheduled start date means the date a study period commences according to the university's academic calendar or the date determined by the academic registrar.

SSAF payment date means the date by which the student services and amenities fee is payable.

student contribution amount means the fee that a Commonwealth supported student pays for each course.

student default means—

- (a) the student does not commence the program on the agreed starting day; or
- (b) the student withdraws from the program either before or after the agreed starting day; or
- (c) the university cancels the student's enrolment because of one or more of the following events—
 - (i) the student failed to pay an amount they were liable to pay; or
 - (ii) the student breached a condition of his or her student visa; or
 - (iii) misbehaviour by the student.

student services and amenities fee (SSAF) means a fee for student services and amenities of a non-academic and non-political nature, the maximum annual amount for which is legislated by the Australian government.

study period means a semester, trimester, research quarter, medical rotation or teaching period.

tuition fee means the fee an overseas student or a domestic student, not being a Commonwealth supported student, pays for each program or course.

UQ-Ochsner student means an overseas student enrolled in a medical program at the university under the partnership agreement between the university and the Ochsner Health System.

2 Payment prerequisite to enrolment

- (1) A person is not taken to be enrolled in a course until all relevant fees have been paid to the university.
- (2) If a proposed change of enrolment would incur an increase in a fee, or an additional fee, a change of enrolment will not take effect until all further amounts have been paid to the university.

3 Student contribution amounts for Commonwealth supported students

- (1) A Commonwealth supported student must pay the applicable student contribution amount determined under Schedule 2, unless the student is an exempt student.
- (2) A Commonwealth supported student who pays or defers the student contribution amount under HECS-HELP is taken to have paid the student contribution amount.
- (3) The university may treat a person as a Commonwealth supported student for a particular course only if the person has paid all fees for that course (including all charges under Schedule 1) by the census date.
- (4) A person who has not paid the fees required under rule 3(3) may continue as a student for that course only if the student pays fees under rule 4.

4 Tuition fees for domestic students

- (1) A domestic coursework student who is not a Commonwealth supported student must pay the applicable tuition fee determined under schedule 3, unless the student is an exempt student.
- (2) A domestic research higher degree student must pay the applicable tuition fee determined under schedule 5, unless the student is an exempt student.
- (3) A domestic student who defers payment of any of the tuition fee under FEE-HELP is taken to have paid that fee.

5 Tuition fees for overseas students

- (1) An overseas student must pay the applicable tuition fee determined under schedule 4.
- (2) An overseas research higher degree student must pay the applicable tuition fee determined under schedule 5.
- (3) Despite rule 5(1) and 5(2), an overseas student who—
 - (a) gains permanent residency status before the census date; and
 - (b) provides the academic registrar with satisfactory evidence of permanent residency status before the census date; and
 - (c) continues enrolment at the university as a domestic student,must pay the tuition fee under rule 4(1) or 4(2).

6 Payment of fees

- (1) The fees imposed by these rules for a semester, trimester or research quarter are payable by the date set by the academic registrar as the date by which such fees are due to be paid.
- (2) The fees imposed by these rules for a teaching period are payable by the date set by the academic registrar as the date by which such fees are due to be paid.
- (3) A student excluded or suspended under a university statute or rule must pay outstanding fees.
- (4) A change of enrolment that takes effect after the census date does not reduce the fee that the student must pay.

7 Prepayment of administrative charges

- (1) A student must, before taking any of the actions set out under the heading Administrative Charges in Schedule 1, pay the relevant administrative charge.
- (2) A separate charge is payable for each action and for each time action is taken.
- (3) The action will be effective only if the applicable charge is paid.

7A Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF)

- (1) A student must pay the applicable student services and amenities fee set out in Schedule 1.
- (2) For the purposes of rule 7A(1)—
 - (a) different amounts for the student services and amenities fee may be determined for particular categories of students, including a zero amount;
 - (b) a domestic student who defers the student services and amenities fee under SA-HELP is taken to have paid the student services and amenities fee.
- (3) A student services and amenities fee is to apply to each enrolment period in which a student enrolls, until a maximum annual charge has been levied.
- (4) The student services and amenities fee imposed by these rules for an enrolment period is payable by the SSAF payment date set for the enrolment period.
- (5) A change of enrolment that takes effect after the SSAF payment date does not reduce the fee that the student must pay.
- (6) The student services and amenities fee is non-refundable after the SSAF payment date.

8 Refund of fees on cancellation of enrolment

- (1) The university must refund relevant fees to a student who gives written notice of cancellation or change of enrolment by the census date.
- (2) A student excluded or suspended under a university statute or rule is not entitled to a refund.
- (3) A student may appeal to the academic registrar in writing against a refusal to provide a refund.
- (4) Despite rule 8(1), if—
 - (a) a UQ-Ochsner student defaults in their first study period of enrolment at the university before the end of the census date for the study period; and
 - (b) the student's written contract with the university requires the student to pay all tuition fees in US dollars;the relevant administrative charge set out in Schedule 1, item 3 is payable by the student.
- (5) Despite rule 8(1), if an overseas student other than a UQ-Ochsner student defaults in their first study period of enrolment at the university before the end of the census date for the study period, the relevant administrative charge set out in Schedule 1, item 3A is payable by the student.
- (6) Despite rule 8(4), the academic registrar may—
 - (a) waive an administrative charge that would otherwise be payable by a student under rule 8(4); or
 - (b) reduce the amount of an administrative charge that would otherwise be payable by a student under that rule.
- (7) Despite rule 8(5), the academic registrar may—
 - (a) waive an administrative charge that would otherwise be payable by a student under rule 8(5); or
- (8) reduce the amount of an administrative charge that would otherwise be payable by a student under that rule.

9 Removal of financial liability due to special circumstances

- (1) Remission of financial liability for Commonwealth supported students or those in receipt of FEE-HELP will be determined under HESA*.
- (2) Students to whom rule 9(1) does not apply, may apply to the academic registrar for the remission of financial liability for tuition fees if—
 - (a) the student has been enrolled in the course; and
 - (b) the course formed part of a program of study; and
 - (c) the student has not completed the requirements for the course during the period during which the student undertook, or was to undertake, the course; and
 - (d) special circumstances prohibited the student from completing the course.
- (3) An application under rule 9(2) must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) state an address to which notices under these rules may be sent to the applicant; and
 - (c) be made either—
 - (i) within 12 months from when the student withdrew from the course; or
 - (ii) if the student has not withdrawn from the course—within 12 months from the end of the study period during which the course was undertaken.
- (4) For the purposes of rule 9(2)(d), special circumstances prohibited a student from completing a course if the academic registrar is satisfied that circumstances applied to the student that—
 - (a) were beyond the student's control; and
 - (b) did not make their full impact on the student until on or after the census date for the course in question; and
 - (c) made it impracticable for the student to complete the requirements of the course in the period during which the student undertook, or was to undertake, the course.
- (5) If a student makes an application under rule 9, the academic registrar must, within a reasonable time—
 - (a) after considering the application, make a decision on the application; and
 - (b) give the student written notice of the decision.
- (6) The notice must include a statement of reasons for the decision.

9A Applying for a review

- (1) A person affected by a decision made under rule 9(5) may apply to have the decision reviewed by the deputy vice-chancellor (academic).
- (2) An application for a review must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) state an address to which notices under these rules may be sent to the applicant; and
 - (c) be made within 28 days after the date the person first received the notice of the decision.

9B Decision on review

- (1) If a person makes an application under rule 9A(1), the deputy vice-chancellor (academic) must, within a reasonable time—
 - (a) after considering the application, make a decision on the application; and
 - (b) give the person written notice of the decision
- (2) The notice must include a statement of reasons for the decision.

10 Determination of special cases

The academic registrar is to decide cases where an issue is not clearly dealt with in the rules, including—

- (a) a variation in the amount of a fee payable on academic grounds (for example, enrolment matters); and
- (b) a variation in the time to pay a fee; and
- (c) dispensation of a late payment charge.

11 Arrangements with other educational institutions or third parties

A student pursuing a program or course under an arrangement between the university and a third party must pay the fees set out under that arrangement rather than the fees set out in Schedules 2, 3, 4 or 5.

* Refer to section 36-20 of HESA in relation to HECS-HELP, and section 104-25 of HESA in relation to FEE-HELP. These provisions have a broadly similar effect to the latter rule 9 of these rules.

Schedule 2 — Student Contribution Amounts for 2017*

1 Definitions

In this schedule—

EFTSL has the meaning given by the Higher Education Support Act 2003.

EFTSL value has the meaning given by the Higher Education Support Act 2003.

higher education provider has the meaning given by the Higher Education Support Act 2003.

post-2009 student means a student who started a course of study with a higher education provider, as a Commonwealth supported student, on or after 1 January 2010.

pre-2010 student means a student who started a course of study with a higher education provider at undergraduate or postgraduate level, as a Commonwealth supported student, before 1 January 2010 and is enrolled in a course of study at the university at the same level, as a Commonwealth supported student, in 2017.

SCA means student contribution amount.

2 Student contribution amounts

- (1) The SCA payable by a student for an EFTSL to be undertaken in 2017, for units of study in a particular band, is—
 - (a) for a pre-2010 student — the amount shown in Table 1 for the band; or
 - (b) for a post-2009 student — the amount shown in Table 2 for the band.
- (2) The SCA for each course is the amount determined as a result of the provost allocating the course to one of the bands in Tables 1 or 2 and calculating the EFTSL value of the course.

Table 1

Band	SCA payable by a pre-2010 student for an EFTSL for 2017*
Band 3 (accounting, administration, economics, commerce, law, dentistry, medicine and veterinary science)	$10,596
Band 2 (computing, built environment, health, engineering, surveying, agriculture, mathematics, science, and statistics)	$9,050
Band 1 (humanities, behavioural science, social studies, foreign languages, visual and performing arts)	$6,349
National priorities (education, nursing)	$5,081

Table 2

Band	SCA payable by a post-2009 student for an EFTSL for 2017*
Band 3 (accounting, administration, economics, commerce, law, dentistry, medicine and veterinary science)	$10,596
Band 2 (computing, built environment, health, engineering, surveying, agriculture, mathematics, science, and statistics)	$9,050

Band	SCA payable by a post-2009 student for an EFTSL for 2017*
Band 1 (education, nursing, humanities, behavioural science, social studies, foreign languages, visual and performing arts)	$6,349

* Student Contribution Amounts for 2018 are expected to be set in mid-2017.

Schedule 3 — 2018 Tuition Fees for Domestic Students – Coursework Programs

Part A — Undergraduate Programs

1 Fees for domestic students

A domestic student who enrolls in a course in an undergraduate program must pay fees determined for that course.

1A Fees for non-award and cross-institutional domestic students

If a domestic student enrolls in an undergraduate course as a non-award student, or a cross-institutional student, in a year, the student must pay the undergraduate domestic tuition fee determined for the course for the year.

2 Fee amounts payable

- (1) The domestic tuition fee charging rate per unit (in this part the rate) for each undergraduate course is to be set by the Fees Reviewing Committee on the recommendation of the executive dean, allocating the course to one of the bands referred to in Table 1.
- (2) The Fees Reviewing Committee must refer matters of academic significance to the provost before allocating a course to a band in Table 1.
- (3) The amount for each band in Table 1 for 2012 and later years is subject to cost indexation on a basis to be determined by the Fees Reviewing Committee.
- (4) The rate for a course must not be less than the combined amount of the Commonwealth grant scheme contribution and the university student contribution charge generated for a publicly funded place in the same course.

3 Pre-2005 students

- (1) A domestic tuition fee student who enrolled and commenced study in the student's current undergraduate program before 1 January 2005 will not be required to pay a tuition fee for a course that is a higher amount than that applicable at the time of the student's enrolment in the current undergraduate program.
- (2) Despite section 3(1), if a student who enrolled in an undergraduate program before 1 January 2005 enrolls in a new program, the student must pay fees at the rate set out in Table 1.

Part B — 2018 Postgraduate Programs

1 Fees for domestic students

A domestic student who enrolls in a course in a postgraduate program must pay fees determined for that course.

1A Fees for non-award and cross-institutional domestic students

If a domestic student enrolls in a postgraduate course as a non-award student, or a cross-institutional student, in a year, the student must pay the postgraduate domestic tuition fee determined for the course for the year.

2 Fee amount payable

- (1) The domestic tuition fee charging rate per unit (in this part the rate) for each course undertaken in the postgraduate program is to be set by the Fees Reviewing Committee on the recommendation of the executive dean, allocating the course to one of the bands shown in Table 2.

- (2) The Fees Reviewing Committee must refer matters of academic significance to the provost before allocating a course to a band in Table 2.
- (3) The amount for each band set out in Table 2 for 2012 and later years is subject to cost indexation on a basis to be determined by the Fees Reviewing Committee.
- (4) A domestic student who has enrolled in a postgraduate program before 1 January 2012 will continue to be charged tuition fees for courses in subsequent years based on the allocation of those courses to bands at the time of the initial enrolment of the domestic student in the postgraduate program.
- (4A) Despite section 2(4), if a student who is enrolled in a program before 1 January 2012 enrolls in a new program, the student must pay the fees at the rate in Table 2.
- (4B) For section 2(4), relevant band means the band to which the course was allocated when the student enrolled in the program.
- (5) A domestic tuition fee student who enrolled and commenced study in the student's current postgraduate program before 1 January 2005 will not be required to pay a tuition fee per course higher than that applicable at the time of that student's enrolment in the current postgraduate program.
- (6) Despite section 2(5), if a student who is enrolled in a postgraduate program before 1 January 2005 enrolls in a new program, the student must pay the fees at the rate in Table 2.

Schedule 4 — Tuition Fees for Overseas Students – Coursework Programs

1 Definitions

In this schedule—

one EFTSL (equivalent full-time student load) means the standard annual study load of a student undertaking a program on a full-time basis and comprises 16 units of courses.

pre-2012 overseas student means an overseas student who started a program at the university, before 1 January 2012 and is enrolled in the same program, as an overseas student in 2016.

pre-2016 overseas student means an overseas student who started a program at the university after 31 December 2011 and before 1 January 2016, and is enrolled in the same program, as an overseas student in 2016.

post-2015 overseas student means an overseas student who started a program at the university in 2016 or later years.

post-2017 overseas student means an overseas student who starts a program at the university in 2018 or later years.

program means the study set for a particular award at the university.

1A Fees for overseas students

An overseas student who enrolls in a course must pay tuition fees determined for that course.

1B Fees for non-award and cross-institutional overseas students

If an overseas student enrolls in a course as a non-award student, or a cross-institutional student, in a year, the student must pay the overseas student tuition fee determined for the course for the year.

2 Fee amounts payable

2A Fees for pre-2012 and pre-2016 overseas students

- (1) For pre-2016 students, the overseas tuition fee charging rate per unit (in this schedule the rate) for each course is to be set by the Fees Reviewing Committee on the recommendation of the executive dean, allocating the course to one of the bands referred to in Table 1.
- (2) The Fees Reviewing Committee must refer matters of academic significance to the provost prior to allocating a course to a band in Table 1.
- (3) An overseas student who has enrolled in a program before 1 January 2012 (in this schedule a pre-2012 student) will continue to be charged tuition fees for courses in subsequent years based on the allocation of those courses to bands at the time of the initial enrolment of the overseas student in the program.
- (3A) Despite section 2A(3), if a student who is enrolled in a program before 1 January 2012 commences in a new program—
 - (a) before 1 January 2016, the student must pay fees at the rate in Table 1; or
 - (b) from January 2016, the student must pay fees at the relevant rate in Table 2 for undergraduate coursework programs and Table 3 for postgraduate coursework programs.
- (4) The amount for each band in Table 1 for 2012 and later years will be subject to cost indexation on a basis to be determined by the Fees Reviewing Committee.

- (5) An overseas student who has enrolled and commenced study in the student's current program before 1 January 2005 will not be required to pay a tuition fee, per course, higher than that applicable at the time of that student's enrolment in the current program.
- (6) Despite section 2A(5), if a student who is enrolled in a program before 1 January 2005 enrolls in a new program—
- (a) before 1 January 2016, the student must pay fees at the rate in Table 1 for the program;
 - (b) after 31 December 2015, the student must pay fees at the relevant rate in Table 2 for an undergraduate coursework program and Table 3 for a postgraduate coursework program.

2B Fees for post-2015 and post-2017 overseas students

- (1) For post-2015 and post-2017 students, the overseas tuition fee for each program is to be set by the Fees Reviewing Committee on the basis of the fee for one EFTSL for that program recommended by the executive dean and the charging rate per unit (or rate) for each program is to be set by dividing the fee for one EFTSL, for that program, by 16.
- (2) The Fees Reviewing Committee must refer matters of academic significance to the provost prior to setting a program fee.
- (3) The amount for each program in Tables 2 and 3 for 2016 and later years will be subject to cost indexation on a basis to be determined by the Fees Reviewing Committee.
- (4) A post-2015 or post-2017 overseas student who enrolls in an undergraduate coursework degree must pay fees for courses at the rate per unit for their program of enrolment as set out in Table 2.
- (5) A post-2015 or post-2017 overseas student who enrolls in a postgraduate coursework degree must pay fees for courses at the rate per unit for their program of enrolment as set out in Table 3.
