1. Advice to Students

Procedures / Instructions

This form is used to add courses after the last day for addition or substitution of courses*. An administrative charge will apply after that date. Adding courses may change your financial liability. If adding a course increases your financial liability, to avoid an administrative charge for late payment, you must pay any fees or charges within two days of the course(s) being added to your enrolment. Please check your mySI-net financial page for any fees owing and the payment due date. For information on adding or dropping courses see: http://www.uq.edu.au/myadvisor/changing-courses.

Please note that this form is not to be used to request ‘over-enrolment’ i.e. addition of a course which takes your enrolment beyond the limits provided for by General Award Rule 1.11.1. For more information see http://www.uq.edu.au/study/?page=12450

(a) Complete section 2 (you will need your course coordinator to sign 2b) and sign section 3.

(b) Obtain the approval and signature of the Associate Dean (Academic) of your faculty. (Students in the Faculty of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences programs should submit the form to the school administering their program, who will obtain faculty approval on your behalf.)

(c) Lodge this form at a Student Centre and pay the applicable administrative charge.

You will be advised by email to your student account when your enrolment is complete.

Note: Adding A Course After The Census Date

Adding courses after the census date is unlikely to be approved unless you can demonstrate special circumstances prevented you from completing your enrolment prior to the census date. Any requests for late enrolment must be lodged through your faculty and, subject to faculty support, will be considered by the Academic Registrar.

- Commonwealth supported students must pay full tuition fees for a course added after the census date (Note: under the HESA legislation, the University is not permitted to enrol a student in a course as a Commonwealth supported student after the census date. At UQ, the alternative is to approve such enrolment as a full-fee paying student. A student enrolling in a course after the census date is unable to access Australian government loan arrangements (HECS-HELP, FEE-HELP etc.) for that course).

- Full-fee-paying students (domestic and international) have to pay full tuition fees for the course(s) plus a $200 administration fee.
