Application for Withdrawal Without Academic Penalty

Before Finalisation of Results

Students may withdraw without academic penalty at any time during the semester, but should do so as soon as circumstances change. This form is used after the dates to withdraw without approval via mySI-net (30 April for first semester and year-long courses commencing in first semester, and 30 September for second semester courses) and before results in that course are finalised. The date for summer semester changes every year.

Please read the information at http://my.uq.edu.au/withdrawing and pages 2-3 of this form before lodging your request.

APPLICATION FOR WITHDRAWAL WITHOUT ACADEMIC PENALTY PRIOR TO FINALISATION OF RESULTS

1. When can I withdraw from a course?

You can apply to withdraw from a course at any time during the semester, but must do as soon as possible after your circumstances change. The action required varies depending upon when you seek to withdraw. Refer to my.UQ “Withdrawing from a course or program” for more information. (http://my.uq.edu.au/withdrawing)

   Note: This form is to be used for applications made prior to finalisation of results. If you believe you have grounds to withdraw without academic penalty after results are finalised for the semester, you may make an application to the President of the Academic Board who has the power to change finalised results under very limited circumstances only. These are listed in the UQ Policy and Procedures Library https://my.uq.edu.au/information-and-services/manage-my-program/uq-policies-and-rules. For additional information on guidelines for applying for a change to finalised results in special circumstances, please see https://my.uq.edu.au/information-and-services/manage-my-program/academic-progress-and-final-results/querying-result.

Withdrawal Before the Census Date

You may automatically withdraw without academic penalty or financial liability from a course via mySI-net on or before the Census Date, that is: 31 March for Semester 1; 31 August for Semester 2; Refer to the Academic Calendar for Summer Semester. The courses will be deleted from your studies report and your official academic record.

Withdrawal After the Census Date

A. If you withdraw from a course via mySI-net after the Census Date and on or before 30 April and 30 September and the Summer Semester Census Date, you will automatically be permitted to withdraw without academic penalty. A result of ‘W’ will be applied to the course and this will be listed on your studies report only. A ‘W’ does not contribute to your grade point average. However, you will retain financial liability for the course.

B. You may withdraw with academic penalty from a course via SI-net after 30 April and 30 September (and after the Summer Semester Census Date) and before your results for the semester have been finalised. A result of ‘K’ (withdrawal with academic penalty) will be applied and this will be listed on your studies report and your official academic record. In this case, you will retain financial liability for the course. For the purposes of calculating grade point average, a ‘K’ is a zero.

C. If you believe you have grounds to withdraw without academic penalty on or after 1 May and 1 October (and after the Summer Semester Census Date) and before your results are finalised for the semester, you may make application in writing to your Faculty, requesting withdrawal. Such applications must include supporting documentation to substantiate the grounds for your request. If your application is granted, you will receive a ‘W’. If your application is refused, you will receive a result of ‘K’ on your studies report and your official academic transcript, provided you have already dropped your course through mySI-net. If you have not dropped your course through mySI-net and your request for withdrawal is refused, you will be awarded a grade at the end of the semester, based upon the assessment you have submitted. You will retain financial liability for the course.

2. When might my application to withdraw after the dates listed above be granted?

The following normally constitute acceptable grounds for the faculty to grant withdrawal without academic penalty –

- A serious health problem, or the onset of a chronic health problem since the last date to withdraw without academic penalty of enrolment date, as evidenced by medical certificates (e.g. car accident, hospitalisation/recovery from hospitalisation, chronic viral infection).
- Serious personal trauma since the last date to withdraw without academic penalty, as evidenced by medical certificates and/or personal declaration.
- Demonstrable change in personal circumstances since the last date to withdraw without academic penalty as supported by personal declaration and other relevant material (e.g., additional and unforeseen employment demands on a part-time student; severe financial stress; onset of severe illness in an immediate family member).
- Evidence that the commencing student in their first semester of study is unable to cope with University level studies or has clearly made an incorrect career choice and is unable to meet the requirements of the course or of particular courses within the program.

June 2017
3. When might an application to withdraw after the dates listed above be refused?

The following would not normally be grounds for the faculty to grant withdrawal without academic penalty –

- Failure to prepare adequately for assessment requirements because of other personal commitments that are within the student’s control.
- Failure to cancel a course by the advertised cancellation enrolment date through the student’s error.

4. Information for international students on a student visa

Under the provisions of the Educational Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act, international students studying under a student visa are required to complete their program in minimum time. Therefore a full-time enrolment in 8 units (#8) each semester is usually required. Some exemptions apply and international students must seek advice from their faculty before reducing their study load.

If you are an international student intending to withdraw from your program, you should complete an International Students Application to Withdraw form (http://www.uq.edu.au/myadvisor/forms/enrolment/international-withdrawal.pdf). For more details on UQ's refund guidelines for international students, please refer to the University’s international student refund procedures found at http://ppl.app.uq.edu.au/content/3.40.03-student-refunds. The University is required by law to notify the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) of international students who withdraw from their studies.

5. What steps do I take?

a. Complete the application for withdrawal without academic penalty form. Ensure all sections are completed.

b. Provide documentary evidence of the change in your circumstances that has prompted the withdrawal application.

   When applying for withdrawal students must apply to the Associate Dean, Academic in the relevant faculty and provide appropriate supporting documentation that indicates that the circumstances affecting study started, or worsened significantly, after the relevant dates for cancellation. Letters from Student Services may be useful, but by themselves may not be sufficient to justify granting withdrawal without academic penalty if they are presented in the absence of other substantial documentation (for example, a properly signed and officially stamped statutory declaration of circumstances). All applications for withdrawal on health grounds should be supported by a medical certificate. Applications for withdrawal on non-medical grounds should be supported by other corroborative evidence.

c. Submit your application to your faculty or the Student Centre:

   - St Lucia - Level 1 JD Story Building (61)
   - Ipswich - Building No. 8
   - Gatton - Level 1, N.W. Briton Administration Centre Annexe

d. Outcome of applications

   If approved: Approved withdrawals will be noted as a 'W' grade on your mySI-net Studies Report. An email will be sent to you informing you of the change of grade to 'W'. A 'W' grade is not included in the calculation of your grade point average (GPA). A withdrawal without academic penalty does not remove your financial liability. If you have exceptional circumstances you may apply to have your financial liability removed. Please see my.UQ for information on the removal of financial liability (http://my.uq.edu.au/removal-financial-liability).

   If NOT approved: Students will be advised by email of late withdrawals which are not approved. If you still choose to drop a course using mySI-net a fail grade of 'K' (i.e. a grade of zero) will be recorded on your Studies Report and on your official transcript. Alternatively you can choose to continue in the course.
