Medical Education in Primary Palliative Care

Aim:
To describe the present state medical education in PPC in GP vocational training in an international perspective.

Method:
Survey using questionnaires by organisations responsible for GP vocational training

Challenges:
huge variation within countries
response rate / coverage
Defining competences of primary palliative care

Aim:
Define core competences of primary palliative care professionals

Method:
literature review and delphi technique

Outcome:
description competences to be used for education and research
step toward definition primary palliative care Generalism in primary care (J. Gunn et al 2008)

• Ways of being

• Ways of knowing

• Ways of doing