Invitation for nominations - 2017 U21 ECR Workshop - Interculturality and Multiculturalism: the challenges for changing societies

Nominations are now open for the 2017 U21 ECR workshop ‘Interculturality and Multiculturalism: the challenges for changing societies’ hosted by Pontificia Universidad de Catolica de Chile from the 4th to the 6th of October 2017. For further details on the workshop including a short program please see the U21 website: http://www.universitas21.com/event/details/285/early-career-researcher-workshop

The University of Queensland (UQ) has been invited to nominate seven early career researchers (ECRs). Four nominees will be guaranteed, with three reserves to be confirmed should places become available.

Eligibility: Nominees should be within 8 years of being awarded their doctorate and employed in a ‘research-related’ capacity by a U21 Institution.

All interested and eligible ECRs wishing to attend the workshop are invited to submit an expression of interest (EOI) to UQR&I by opening of business Tuesday 2nd May 2017, comprising the following two documents:

- U21 2017 ECR Workshop EOI Form
- U21 2017 ECR Workshop Template CV (Four Page Maximum)

EOIs are to be submitted by e-mail to grants-manager@research.uq.edu.au, preferably in a single PDF format per nominee. EOIs will be assessed by a UQ internal Panel. Travel and accommodation costs of up to $3,500 per ECR will be provided by UQ Research and Innovation (by reimbursement for each approved candidate who has attended). Schools/Centres/Faculties/Institutes will be responsible for coordinating travel and accommodation arrangements and for meeting the balance of the travel/attendance costs.

Any enquiries can be directed to grants-manager@research.uq.edu.au
