Master of Laws (Advanced)

1 Definitions
In these rules –

LLM list means the course list for the program.

program means the Master of Laws (Advanced) program.

2 Enrolment requirements
To enrol in the program, a student must –
(a) hold either –
   (i) an approved bachelor of laws degree, with a GPA of 4.5; or
   (ii) a qualification approved by the executive dean; or
(b) be a barrister or solicitor of 3 years standing of the Supreme Court of an Australian State or Territory.

3 Program requirements
(1) To complete the program, a student must gain credit for 24 units in courses listed in the LLM list.
(2) However, only 4 of the 24 units may be in courses listed in part B of the list.

4 Maximum credit for other study
The maximum credit that the associate dean (academic) may grant to a student for other study is 12 units from the following:
(a) up to 4 units for postgraduate courses credited towards a completed award;
(b) postgraduate courses not credited towards a completed award.

Note See GAR 1.6 of the General Award Rules.