

Bachelor of Environmental Management

1 Definitions

In these rules—

course level means the first digit in the course code.

pre-2012 student means a student who first enrolled in the program before 1 January 2012.

2 Field of study

A student must undertake the program in a major approved by the executive dean.

3 Program requirements

- (1) To complete the program, a student must complete 64 units from the BEnvMan course list comprising—
 - (a) 28 units from part A; and
 - (b) 16 units from part B in the chosen major; and
 - (c) 16 units from part D; and
 - (d) 4 units from part C.
- (2) For rule 3(1), a student must gain—
 - (a) a minimum of 24 units of late year courses; and
 - (b) no more than 24 units of level 1 courses in the program.

4 Maximum credit for other study

The maximum credit that the associate dean (academic) may grant to a student for other study is 32 units.

Note see GARs 1.6 and 2.3 of the General Award Rules.

5 Fourth year research option

The associate dean (academic) may set the GPA required for entry into the fourth year research option.

6 Honours

- (1) Honours may be awarded to a student on the basis of the weighted cumulative grade point average that the student has gained over all courses that contribute to the program with all courses being weighted according to their course level.
- (2) The student's grade point average must be calculated based on the student's initial result for their first attempt at each course.

7 Special rules

7.1 Supplementary assessment

In addition to GAR 1A.17, the associate dean (academic) may grant supplementary assessment in a single course in which the student gains a grade of 3 and where the student—

- (a) gains that grade in any semester; and
- (b) has not been granted supplementary assessment in any other course in that semester; and
- (c) has not previously been granted supplementary assessment under this rule; and
- (d) makes an application for supplementary assessment within 5 days of the release of results.

8 Transitional

A pre-2012 student may complete the program under the rules in force on 31 December 2011 or under the current rules.
