

Bachelor of Criminology and Criminal Justice (Honours)

1 Program requirements

To complete the program, a student must complete 64 units from the BCCJ(Hons) course list, comprising—

- (a) 34 units from part A; and
- (b) 14 units from part B; and
- (c) 16 units from part C.

2 Maximum credit for other study

The maximum credit that the associate dean (academic) may grant to a student for other study is 32 units.

3 Class of honours

The class of honours is calculated on the basis of the grade point average of the results obtained by a student in courses contributing to part C of the program.

4 Special rules

4.1 Progression through program

- (1) A student must not enrol in courses from part C of the program until gaining credit for all relevant courses in parts A and B.
- (2) A student must commence part C of the program in semester one of the academic year.
- (3) To enrol in courses from part C of the program following an interruption to studies, a student must satisfy the executive dean and head of school that the student has the competencies required for undertaking further study in the program.

4.2 Award of the Bachelor of Criminal Justice

A student who withdraws from the BCCJ(Hons) program after completing all relevant courses from parts A and B may be awarded the Bachelor of Criminal Justice.

4.3 Continuous enrolment

Unless approved by the executive dean, a student must undertake part C of the program without interruption.

4.4 Mode of study

Unless approved by the executive dean, a student must enrol in part C of the program full-time.

4.5 Thesis and criminal justice case study

- (1) A student must complete either the thesis course or criminal justice case study in part C of the course list.
- (2) To be eligible to enrol in the thesis course in part C of the course list, a student must have a GPA of 5.5 across all courses credited towards parts A and B of the BCCJ(Hons) course list.
