

Bachelor of Education (Secondary)

1 Definitions

In these rules—

part A; part B means the relevant part of the BEd(Sec) course list;

practicum course means the EDUC course containing a practical component where students gain supervised teaching experience in a workplace setting.

2 Enrolment requirements

A student must enrol in this program as part of a dual degree.

3 Program requirements

To complete the program, a student must complete 32 units from the BEd(Sec) course list, comprising—

- (a) 16 units from part A; and
- (b) 16 units from part B.

4 Special rules

4.1 Progression through program

- (1) A student must complete part A before enrolling in any course from part B.
- (2) A student must complete part B in 1 year.
- (3) Despite rule 4.1(2), a student may enrol part-time only if the head of school decides that the student has commitments which require part-time enrolment.

4.2 No concurrent study

While completing part B, a student must not undertake any other program outside the BEd(Sec) course list.

4.3 Practicum

A student who commences, but does not successfully complete, a practicum course may re-enrol in that course in a subsequent semester only if approved by the associate dean (academic).

4.4 Blue card

At the start of the program, a student must obtain a blue card and thereafter hold a current blue card for the duration of the program.

4.5 LANTITE test

Prior to graduation, a student must successfully complete the Literacy and Numeracy Test for Initial Teacher Education Students (LANTITE) as set by the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership (AITSL).

4.6 Award of the Bachelor of Learning Studies (Secondary)

- (1) A student who meets all program requirements for BEd(Sec) under rule 3 but does not meet the LANTITE test requirement under rule 4.5 may be awarded the Bachelor of Learning Studies (Secondary).
- (2) The Bachelor of Learning Studies (Secondary) is not approved for teacher registration in Australia.
