

Master of Global Management

1 Definitions

In these rules—

approved program means the program an inbound student is enrolled in at the partner institution and that is specified in the agreement with the partner institution.

commencing UQ student means a student commencing the master of global management program with an effective enrolment at The University of Queensland.

GMAT means the Graduate Management Admissions Test.

inbound student means a student commencing the Master of Global Management program with an effective enrolment at a partner institution.

MGMan list means the course list for the Master of Global Management partner institution means an overseas institution with whom The University of Queensland has a formal agreement as an official partner with the Master of Global Management program.

thesis includes a project or business report.

2 Enrolment requirements

2.1 Eligibility

- (1) To be eligible to enrol in the program, a person must either—
  - (a) for a commencing UQ student—
    - (i) hold an approved degree, with a GPA of 5.25; and
    - (ii) satisfy the executive dean that the student is suitably qualified to undertake study at the partner institution; or
  - (b) for an inbound student—
    - (i) be admitted to an approved program at a partner institution; and
    - (ii) have successfully completed a minimum of 8 units in the approved program, with a GPA of 5.25.
- (2) A student must, if required by the executive dean, pass a qualifying examination in any or all of the following before eligibility is established—
  - (a) basic computing;
  - (b) written communication;
  - (c) basic mathematics;
  - (d) basic statistics.

2.2 Quotas

- (1) The executive dean may set a quota for the program.
- (2) Once eligibility is established, places in the quota will be offered to students based on GPA and results of any completed qualifying examination.

3 Field of study

A student may undertake the program in an approved field.

4 Program requirements

- (1) To complete the program, a student must complete 32 units from the MGMan course list comprising—
  - (a) 6 units from part A; and

- (b) 8 units from part B, which may comprise a field of study; and
  - (c) 18 units from—
    - (i) part B or part C or part D; or
    - (ii) other courses approved by the executive dean.
- (2) Of the 32 units required for the program as set out in rule 4(1), a student must obtain 16 units from completed study at a partner institution.

5 Maximum credit for other study

The maximum credit that an associate dean (academic) may grant for previous study is 16 units.

Note see PPL 3.50.03 Credit for Previous Studies and Recognised Prior Learning

6 Special rules

6.1 Thesis

If a student is required to undertake a course that has a thesis component, the following rules apply to the thesis component of that course—

- (a) the thesis topic must be approved by the head of school; and
- (b) a student must present the thesis by the due date set by the head of school; and
- (c) all or any examiners appointed to examine the thesis may be university staff.

6.2 Progression to an overseas partner institution

- (1) A commencing UQ student may not commence study at an approved partner institution until the student has—
- (a) completed 16 units of UQ courses with a GPA of 5.25; and
  - (b) satisfied the entry requirements set by the partner institution, including a score in GMAT which meets the requirements set by that partner institution.
- (2) A commencing UQ student must nominate their preferred institution from the list of partner institutions by the date set by the executive dean. Students might not receive the first preference of partner institution.

6.3 Award of the Graduate Diploma in Business

A commencing UQ student who successfully completes rule 4(1)(a) and 10 units from a combination of rules 4(1)(b) or (c) but either does not meet the criteria to progress under rule 6.2(1) or wishes to exit the program, may be awarded the Graduate Diploma in Business.