

Bachelor of Communication/Bachelor of Journalism 2018 Dual Degree Program Structure

Please ensure that you read and understand the following important information about your program. To be eligible to enrol in a dual degree program you must ensure that you satisfy the entry requirements for both programs.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you complete all the requirements for each section of this dual program in order to graduate with both degrees. The following information is designed to help you plan your enrolment to meet this goal. Further information can be found in the official rules and course lists under the Program Rules and Requirements link for each program in the Programs and Courses website: <https://my.uq.edu.au/programs-courses/>

You are not required to submit this program plan for approval. However, if you have any concerns about meeting degree requirements, especially when nearing the end of your program, please contact the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences for advice.

You must complete a total of 64 units.

Please note that the Bachelor of Communication and Bachelor of Journalism have some common core (compulsory) courses which can only be counted against one degree. In the planners on Pages 2 & 3 these common courses are all contained in the Bachelor of Journalism list.

Bachelor of Communication Requirements:

32 units in accordance with the Bachelor of Communication program list to include:

- ❖ 8 units for Part A core courses and;
- ❖ 24 units including a major from Part B

Bachelor of Journalism

32 units in accordance with the Bachelor of Journalism program list to include:

- ❖ 24 units for Part A core courses and;
