1 GENERAL INFORMATION

- Cross-institutional students undertake approved courses at The University of Queensland for credit towards their studies at their home institutions. They receive normal instruction, assessment and examination results but are not enrolled in a University of Queensland award program.
- Cross-institutional students are subject to the rules of The University of Queensland including those relating to late fees and academic progress. For clarification of these rules, please consult The University of Queensland myAdvisor website www.uq.edu.au/myAdvisor. Course information is also available at www.uq.edu.au/study.
- Students are responsible for forwarding their results to their home institutions for the awarding of credit. Official academic transcripts are available at a nominal fee.
- If your application is approved, you will be advised on enrolment procedures and you will be sent username and password details for online enrolment via mySI-net.
- Late applications may be considered. Contact the Faculty for further information.

Privacy Statement

The University of Queensland complies with Australian and Queensland privacy laws and guidelines. Information collected is treated as confidential and is used for administrative or educational purposes only and to keep in touch with you after you graduate. To comply with legal and administrative obligations personal information is supplied to government agencies. Personal information will not be disclosed unless you agree or the law requires disclosure. Personal information may be used to prepare statistical information which is then distributed in a form that does not identify anyone.

Disability support

The University is committed to accessibility in teaching, learning and the physical environment and a number of facilities and services are available. Students with a disability should contact a Disability Advisor the year before they intend to commence studies at UQ. Disability Advisor: www.uq.edu.au/student-services (see Disability Program) Phone (07) 3365 1704.

2 APPLICATION

A cross-institutional application and Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP form (undergraduate domestic students only) must be submitted and approved before students can enrol electronically using mySI-net (my.uq.edu.au). All students will be advised by the relevant faculty of the outcome of their application.

1 Complete a cross-institutional application and Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP form (undergraduate domestic students only). Ensure all sections, including stamp of the home institution on the HECS-HELP Status form and the Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP form, are completed. Postgraduate students are not Commonwealth-supported and are liable for full fees.

2 Provide documentary evidence of tertiary study.

Your application cannot be considered without your academic history. Attach complete, officially certified statement(s) of academic transcripts of all tertiary-level studies undertaken, except those undertaken at The University of Queensland. Photocopies must be certified by a Justice of the Peace or by the home institution. Examination result slips or copies of degree certificates are not acceptable. You should forward results of any studies currently being completed as soon as they are available.

3 Submit your application to a Student Centre.

- St Lucia – Level 1 JD Story Building (61) or by post to: Student Centre
- Ipswich – Level 2 Building 8 The University of Queensland
- Gatton – Building 8101A Brisbane Q 4072

If you wish to have original documents returned, enclose a request together with a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Due dates: Semester 1: 31 January Semester 2: 30 June Summer Semester: 31 October

4 This is not an enrolment form. When your application is approved you will be sent written approval, along with information on how to enrol online via the University's online enrolment system, mySI-net.

3 ENROLMENT

1 Enrol by the due date on mySI-net (my.uq.edu.au).

You can obtain enrolment information from the Enrolment Guide available online at The University of Queensland website (www.uq.edu.au), via the my.UQ or mySI-net links, or from the Student Centre on any campus. All students are required to enrol online via mySI-net.

2 Pay fees by the relevant due date.

The Enrolment Guide gives details on due dates for enrolment, payment of charges, up-front HECS-HELP (student contribution amount) and tuition fees. Your enrolment is not effective until all fees and charges are paid. If these are not paid by the census date your enrolment will be cancelled.

3 Obtain your University of Queensland student ID card.

The Enrolment Guide gives details of how and when to obtain your student ID card.
