1 GENERAL INFORMATION

- Non-award students undertake approved courses at The University of Queensland for personal or professional development. They receive normal instruction, assessment and examination results but are not enrolled in a University of Queensland award program.
- If you wish to undertake approved courses at The University of Queensland for credit towards study at another institution, complete the Cross-Institutional Application Form.
- Non-award students are subject to the rules of The University of Queensland including those relating to late fees and academic progress. For clarification of these rules, consult The University of Queensland myAdvisor website www.uq.edu.au/myAdvisor. Course information is also available at www.uq.edu.au/study.
- International students undertaking non-award studies must meet the University's minimum English language proficiency requirements.
- On completion of the course, students may obtain an official academic transcript for a fee.
- Applications must be submitted by – Semester 1: 31 January; Semester 2: 30 June; Summer Semester: 31 October.
- Late applications may be considered.
- Depending upon the reason for undertaking the study, students may be permitted to study up to a maximum of four courses (i.e., 8 units) per semester with a limit of eight courses (i.e., 16 units) in total being undertaken as short-term study.

Privacy statement

The information on this form is collected for the primary purpose of assessing your application for enrolment in a non-award program. Other purposes of collection include the creation of a student record and statistical analyses. To comply with legal and administrative obligations personal information is supplied to relevant government agencies. Personal information may also be disclosed to the education institutions you have attended or your employer(s) to make an informed decision about the application or matters that concern your enrolment at the University of Queensland. Otherwise the information you provide will not be disclosed to a third party without your consent unless disclosure is authorised or required by law. For further information please consult the UQ Privacy Management Policy at: <http://www.uq.edu.au/hupp/index.html?page=24999>.

Disability support

The University is committed to accessibility in teaching, learning and the physical environment and a number of facilities and services are available. Students with a disability should contact a Disability Advisor the year before they intend to commence studies at UQ.
