Course Load

Exchange Students are expected to choose courses amounting to around 20 ECTS in the same or a similar subject they study at their home university.

Courses

- Course Catalogue: http://www.courses.uzh.ch/en
- Courses taught in English at the Faculty of Law and the Faculty of Business, Economics and Informatics:
| Restrictions | Cross-faculty course booking is allowed, however, students should attend most courses in their major and minor(s). Further restrictions:
- Faculty of Arts an Social Sciences: no cross-level booking.
- English Department (English Language and Literature): Students who are not enrolled in English Language and Literature at their home university may take up to two courses only (must be lectures) offered by the English Department. |
| Transcript | Students can download their transcript of records after the end of their exchange on their UZH online account (in the second half of March for courses of the fall semester and in the second half of September for courses of the spring semester). |
| Language Courses | The Language Center of the University of Zurich and ETH offers language courses for students from all fields of study. There are also courses for international and exchange students like “German as a Foreign Language”. Exchange students also have the possibility of taking a German intensive course two weeks before the lectures start. Information about the exact dates, duration and application deadlines will be available several weeks before the beginning of the semester at http://www.sprachenzentrum.uzh.ch/index_en.php
For this pre-semester intensive German language course, a registration fee of CHF 100.- will be charged.
Exchange students who start their exchange at UZH in the fall semester can apply for a summer school in Constance, Germany, on the border to Switzerland. The summer school is organized by IBH (International Lake Constance University) and is held in August.
- fee (including accommodation): € 770 (summer 2016)
- places are limited (priority for exchange students) https://www.uni-konstanz.de/en/international-office/study-in-konstanz/learning-opportunities-for-incoming-students/ibh-summer-school/ |
| Additional Information about UZH | The University of Zurich is member of the following organizations:
- Universitas 21, the leading global network of research universities for the 21st century
- The League of European Research Universities (LERU)
Additionally, UZH's Faculty of Business, Economics and Informatics holds accreditation under the American AACSB label and the European EQUIS label. |
Living in Zurich

Housing

The University of Zurich does not own student dormitories. However, the International Relations Office has access to a limited number of rooms for exchange students from our partner universities, which are administered by the Housing Office of the University of Zurich and ETH. Exchange students will receive more information regarding the online registration for a room after their acceptance.

Additional information:

Insurance

For anyone staying in Switzerland longer than three months, it is compulsory to buy Swiss health insurance. If the insurance at the home country is equivalent, students can apply for an exemption from this obligation. Students are required to await a letter from the cantonal Department of Health they will receive after the registration at the so-called "Kreisbüro" (Zurich's resident's registration offices). Liability insurance is recommended but not mandatory.
