GENERAL INFORMATION

(Established in 2013 for the purpose of encouraging and assisting meritorious students who plan to be future teachers of a language other than English and who will participate in the UQ Abroad Program at an official UQ partner university in a country where their target language is the predominant language.)

1. The scholarship is awarded by Senate on the recommendation of the Head of the School of Languages and Comparative Cultural Studies.

2. To assist in the selection process, the Head of the School, must establish a selection committee comprising -
(a) the Head or nominee (who shall chair the committee); and
(b) a representative of the UQ School of Languages and Comparative Cultural Studies and
(c) a representative of the UQ School of Education.

3. The scholarship is open to students who -
(a) are domestic students as defined in the Fee Rules; and
(b) have successfully completed at least 8 units of their language courses; and
(c) do not hold another comparable scholarship; and
(d) have not previously held the scholarship; and
(e) submit the application to the Head by the closing date for applications; and
(f) have been accepted into the UQ Abroad Program to undertake at least 4 units of study towards their language major at a host university in a country where their target language is predominantly spoken.

4. The scholarship is awarded, at the discretion of the selection committee, to the applicant showing greatest merit as demonstrated by –
(a) academic achievement in their language courses; and
(b) a demonstrated interest in teaching into their target language and culture; and
(c) personal qualities, including leadership potential; and
(d) other matters that may be considered by the selection committee to be relevant to the applicant’s future professional plans to become a teacher of a language other than English.

5. The scholarship is tenable on the recipient commencing an approved overseas study program; and continuing to be enrolled in at least 4 units of study towards their language major while participating in the UQ Abroad Program; and not holding another comparable scholarship.

6. If a recipient fails to satisfy the requirements in (5) above, the student must show cause to the Head why the scholarship should not be cancelled.

7. Applications must be lodged with and by the date set by the Head of the School.

8. The scholarship may not be held concurrently with another scholarship deemed similar by the Head of the School.

9. The scholarship may be deferred only with the approval of the Head of the School.

10. The value of the scholarship is $5,000 to be paid upon confirmation of acceptance at a host university and evidence of an airline receipt.

11. Within 3 months of returning to Australia the recipient must submit to the Head a written report of no more than 500 words on the work done and the benefits of the student exchange experience. The report may be reproduced in school or faculty publications.
