The Institute of International Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University in Prague offers new Master's Degree Programmes taught in English:

Central European Comparative Studies (CECS)

<http://imseng.fsv.cuni.cz/prareas/cecs>

The CECS programme focuses on the region composed of Germany, Austria and the Visegrad countries (the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland and Hungary) with an overlap onto neighbouring countries. It offers a thorough comparative and multidisciplinary understanding of the historical, political, economic and cultural developments of the above listed countries. The programme is offered either in the form of a full-time study or as a part-time study (optimised for working people and with classes on Friday afternoons).

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS 2010/2011: 22 JUNE 2010

European Studies (ES)

The Institute of International Studies prepares a new English-language master's degree programme "European Studies". The ES interdisciplinary programme will provide students with a profound knowledge and understanding of European history and politics, the European integration process and other EU related issues from a legal, political and economic perspective from a Central European point of view. The programme will focus not only on the developments in the EU member states but will offer a study of the European integration process in all its complexity and variety. It is designed especially for students who plan to enter positions in EU institutions, international organizations, national administration or non-governmental organizations.

Information about call for applications and deadline will be available in late May 2010 on the ES programme website: <http://imseng.fsv.cuni.cz/prareas/es>.
