1 Dictionary

In these rules—

approved combination means a combination of courses approved by the executive dean;

BBusMan major means an approved combination of 12 units from part B of the BBusMan course list, of which 6 units must be at level 3;

BIHTM major means an approved combination of 12 units from part B of the BIHTM course list, of which 6 units must be at level 3;

compulsory courses means all compulsory courses in part A of the BBusMan course list and part A of the BIHTM course list, not including TOUR2010;

general electives means courses from any undergraduate program approved by the executive dean;

pre-2019 student means a student who first enrolled in the program before 1 January 2019.

2 Field of study

To be awarded two majors, a student must complete the requirements for both majors, noting that where the same course appears in more than one major, it can only be counted towards one major.

3 Program requirements

- (1) To complete the program, students must complete 64 units comprising—
 - (a) 26 units for compulsory courses; and
 - (b) 12 units for a BBusMan major; and
 - (c) 12 units for a BIHTM major; and
 - (d) 12 units for either—
 - (i) a second BBusMan major; or
 - (ii) a second BIHTM major; or
 - (iii) a combination of courses from part B or C of the BBusMan course list and/or Part B or C of the BIHTM course list; and
 - (e) 2 units of general electives.
- (2) A student must complete no more than 22 units at level 1 (24 units for students undertaking the Real Estate and Development major for full professional accreditation).
- (3) Unless a different intention appears in these rules a student must comply with the program rules for both degrees.

4 Transitional

A pre-2019 student may choose to complete the program under the rules in force on 31 December 2018, rather than under the current rules.
