

Master of International Commercial Law

1 Enrolment requirements

To enrol in the program, a student must hold—

- (a) a bachelor degree in the same discipline with a GPA of at least 4.5, as approved by the executive dean; or
- (b) a bachelor degree in a different discipline with a GPA of at least 4.5 and have completed at least three years of professional full-time work experience (or equivalent) relevant to the courses offered in the program, as approved by the executive dean; or
- (c) an equivalent academic or professional qualification and be able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the executive dean that they have the requisite knowledge to complete the program.

2 Program requirements

To complete the program, a student must complete 24 units from the MICLaw course list comprising—

- (a) 16 units from part A; and
- (b) 8 units from part B or other courses within the discipline approved by the executive dean.

3 Maximum credit for other study

The maximum credit that the associate dean (academic) may grant to a student for other study is 12 units.

4 Special rules

4.1 Award of the Graduate Certificate in International Commercial Law

A student who withdraws from the Master of International Commercial Law after completing 8 units from the MICLaw course list may be awarded the Graduate Certificate in International Commercial Law.