

Bachelor of Humanities

1 Definitions

In these rules—

approved combination means a combination of courses approved by the executive dean;

extended major means an approved combination of 24 units from part B of the BHum course list or part B of the BAdvHum(Hons) course list;

major means an approved combination of 16 units from part B of the BAdvHum(Hons) course list.

2 Program requirements

- (1) To complete the program, a student must be enrolled in either the BHum/LLB(Hons) or BAdvHum(Hons) program, and have completed 48 units, comprising—
 - (a) 8 units for part A of the BHum course list; and
 - (b)
 - (i) if enrolled in the BHum/LLB(Hons) program, 24 units for an extended major from part B of the BHum course list; or
 - (ii) if enrolled in the BAdvHum(Hons) program, 24 units from part B of the BAdvHum(Hons) course list comprising either—
 - (A) a major and 8 units of electives; or
 - (B) an extended major; and
 - (c) 16 units of elective courses from the BHum, BAdvHum(Hons), or LLB(Hons) course list, or any other course list.
- (2) Of the 48 units required for the program as set out in rule 2(1), a student must complete at least 24 units of courses at level 2 or 3, including at least 8 units at level 3.

3 Field of study

A student must undertake the program in an approved major or extended major.